NEWS & NOTES

2010 HOMELESS VETERANS STAND DOWN

U.S. Vets-Prescott has been the non-profit sponsor of the Northern Arizona Veterans Stand Down since 2006. The Stand Down is an event held in cities all over the nation to provide food, clothing, services, and referrals to homeless veterans. The term Stand Down is used in times of war when exhausted combat units requiring time to rest and recover are removed from the battlefield to a place of relative security and safety. Today the Stand Down refers to a grassroots, community-based intervention program designed to help the nation's estimated 130,000 homeless veterans "combat" life on the streets.

This year's Stand Down will be held on September 10 & 11 at the Prescott United Methodist Church, 505 W Gurley Street. Monetary pledges and/or donations of goods will benefit homeless veterans in their time of need and vulnerability. The contact person for this event is SKYE BIASETTI, 928-200-7692, or sbiasetti@usvetsinc.org.

CUSTOMER APPRECIATION MIXER

Northern Office Products & Office Furniture, 8676 E Long Mesa Drive, Prescott Valley, cordially invites Chino Valley Chamber members to an after hours mixer on August 25, 5:00pm - 7:00pm. ON COWBOYS

by
Ab Jackson, CEO

You may recall Nick Nolte and Mac Davis in “North Dallas Forty.” The movie is based on a book by former Dallas Cowboy, Pete Gent. Even though the team in the movie is called the Bulls, it’s clear that Gent meant to take swipes at his former team the Cowboys, and at their quarterback, Don Meredith, and Coach Tom Landry.

Love ‘em or hate ‘em the Dallas Cowboys are one of the most recognizable brands in professional sports. In fact Forbes.Com ranks the Dallas Cowboys brand value at 208 million dollars, fourth behind Manchester United, the New York Yankees, and Real Madrid. Mention the Cowboys and you conjure up images of helmets with a big blue star, cheerleaders, super bowls, and excellence.

In “Branding Your Community”, Susan Combs, Commissioner from the Texas Department of Agriculture lists her favorite Brand Slogans:

1. “Don’t Mess With Texas.”
2. “Texas-It’s like a Whole Other Country.”
3. Snyder, Texas- “Home of the White Buffalo.”
4. Pecos, Texas- “Home of the World’s First Rodeo.” (wonder what Prescott thinks of that?)
5. Madisonville, Texas- “The Mushroom Capital of Texas.”

Susan Combs also listed her seven secrets for community branding. Among them were:

- Commitment by City Leaders to common goals and a long-term vision.
- A deliberately inclusive and detailed planning process.
- Professional marketing research and willingness to accept the findings.
- A solid, creative design process and flawless execution.
- The willingness of city-related groups to partner together, adopting one consistent branding strategy and logo building individual marketing plans, in support of the overall City Master Plan.
- Immediate and visible use of the brand.
- The efforts of the most important brand ambassadors - city employees and citizens.

We’ve been spending a lot of time lately talking about the Chino Valley Brand. Our neighbors already have “Arizona’s Home Town” (Prescott) and “The Entertainment District”(Prescott Valley). Offered up for Chino Valley has been “The High Plains Adventure,” “Arizona’s Horse Capital,” “Charming Chino” and more. We hope to add discussion of the Brand at a future Mayor’s ED Committee meeting.

Back to the Brown Bags, we will be starting the Chino Valley Citizens Academy in October. The Academy is where the future leaders of our community will come to learn Chino 101. We anticipate a six-eight week program. The curriculum will include: 1-Town Government; 2- Public Safety; 3-Economic Development; 4-Chamber of Commerce; 5-CVUSD; 6-Finance; and 7-the Chino Valley nonprofits. We hope to conduct the sessions at the Chamber’s new home on 175 East Road 2 South.

You will remember the new location as the former Bronco Homes site. We are excited about the fabulous access; signage, and extra room the location will provide us. Thanks to the more than 30 Chamber members who joined us on our July 9 workday. The place is looking great. We have a paint-day coming in the next two weeks. Watch your emails for the announcement of the Paint Day and Grand Opening-Mixer.

It’s not too late to get your Territorial Days Parade entry in. The parade is on August 28. Territorial Days runs all week with the celebration including the 60+ year old FFA Corn Dinner and western and English events at Yavapai College on Labor Day weekend.

Pete Gent got his shots in on Landry and Meredith in the movie, but in real life Dandy Don Meredith and Tom Landry are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Gent is not. In fact Meredith is quoted as saying, . . .”If Gent had been as good a receiver as Nick Nolte (who played him in the movie), I’d have thrown to him more often.”

4TH OF JULY FIREWORKS FUND

The CHINO VALLEY NOONTIMERS LIONS and the Chamber are partnering to request that businesses pledge $10 a month for a year to a Chino Valley Fireworks Fund. Contact Steve Hughes of the Noontimers Lions at 928-636-3773 to participate. A small contribution from many will make it happen. Let’s have fireworks in Chino next 4th of July.

JULY LUNCHEON & MIXER HIGHLIGHTS

Jim Cabral has served the Chamber's Business Luncheons, hosts Chino Valley organizations, and is a huge hockey fan. The Chamber Membership Committee selected Gabby's Kitchen as the July 2010 Business of the Month. We managed to tear Jim and his staff away from being "host" long enough to get a photo. Gabby's Kitchen staff is pictured below. Business of the Month is eligible for Business of the Year. CONGRATULATIONS to GABBY'S KITCHEN - July Business of the Month.

Receiving plaques for their political membership are candidates KAREN FANN and BRADLEY BEAUCHAMP, pictured with Ab Jackson.

THANK YOU to Granite Mountain Home Care & Hospice for hosting the July Mixer. We celebrated their newly remodeled offices in addition to the Mixer. GMHCH invites you to come see their “new” space if you could not make the Mixer. See photos for some of the people enjoying Granite Mountain Home Care & Hospice hospitality.

To help Granite Mountain Home Care & Hospice mark the occasion of their 5th anniversary and the completion their remodeled office space the Chamber conducted a ribbon cutting. In addition to GMHCH staff, Chino Valley Town officials included Vice Mayor Ron Romley and Council members Gloria Moore and Dean Echols. See the next column for a ribbon cutting picture.

PARTICIPATE IN $20 ON THE 20TH

Help your business and Chino Valley by participating in $20 on the 20th on FRIDAY, AUGUST 20. Let your customers know you appreciate their business by rewarding them with a blue and white sticker. It is not necessary to give any discounts to participate. We have heard of some creative ways Chino Valley businesses encourage people to shop at their stores. VERIZON WIRELESS offers a 20% discount on all accessories – BOB’S C.A.R. offers a $20 oil change with proceeds donated to a local charity.

Get creative – make it fun – consider ways to encourage your customers to come to your business on other days of the month as well. YOU can put a whole new meaning into “Shop Local” with imagination.

QUARTERLY WOMEN IN BUSINESS LUNCHEON

Ask anyone who attended. The July Women In Business Luncheon was one of the best ever. THANK YOU to Dr. Susan Johnstad for speaking about new things in higher education in Yavapai County because of the partnership with Yavapai College and Northern Arizona University. Susan is the Campus Executive Officer at the Yavapai College campus in Prescott Valley. Questions about NAU/Yavapai College programs? Susan can be reached at 928-771-6144, or yavapai@nau.edu.

THANK YOU to our Women In Business Luncheon sponsor ARIZONA'S HOMETOWN RADIO GROUP and SANDY MOSS for being the luncheon hostess. THANK YOU to BONN-FIRE CHILLIN' & GRILLIN' for a delicious lunch.

NEXT WOMEN IN BUSINESS LUNCHEON: OCTOBER 8. Remember the luncheon is open to any business woman who would like to attend. Just make a reservation with the Chamber.
