"Keeping Chino Valley Area Chamber Members Plugged In On Issues and Events"

Message from outgoing President/ CEO, Tracie Schimikowsky

Dear CVACC Members & Colleagues,

After 9 years in the Chamber Industry, which includes 18 months with the Chino Valley Area Chamber, I've decided to pursue another exciting career opportunity.

I'm delighted to have been a part of the Chino Valley Area Chamber of Commerce and all the work that has been accomplished during my tenure. Since coming on board, we have gone through an accounting conversion, a database conversion offering many FREE benefit opportunities to the membership, partnered with the Town of Chino Valley for services, adopted the WACE Core Competencies for Chambers of Commerce, created a "Value without Participation" statement and much, much more.

I'm appreciative for all the support that the Chamber and Community members have given and I know we will meet up again through other avenues.

I ask that everyone be patient with the Chamber during this transition as it will take time for new staff to be hired and trained.

Today, I can say I will be leaving a Chamber that has grown in many ways. I've enjoyed being part of the Chamber team. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the Board and their willingness to embrace and implement ideas for the organization. I'm thankful for all the staff and volunteers that keep this organization moving forward.

In gratitude,
Tracie

Women In Business learn how to “Beat Burnout”

The last Quarterly Women in Business Networking Luncheon meeting for 2014 was held at the Phippen Museum on Thursday October 23.

We greatly appreciate the support of all of our Title Sponsors:

and our Demi -Sponsors:

The Women in Business support our community by using Chino Valley restaurants to provide our catering. For this event, we enjoyed being served with an Italian flair by The Checkered Apron.

Participants enjoyed a panel presentation on beating burnout in the workplace; first learning how to recognize and lessen it from Cheryl Van Demark, PT of Body Language Studio. Dr. Cheryl Hamilton NMD of Women’s Health and Healing Center. followed with tips on self-care and gratitude practices to remedy personal burnout. To wrap it up, participants greatly enjoyed sharing success stories on how we beat burnout to keep ourselves and our businesses thriving.

Join us in 2015 every quarter for one of these valuable Women in Business Networking Luncheons. Mark your calendar now for Tuesday January 27th. More details to follow on the Events tab in the Chino Valley Chamber web page.
